Five homes with outdoor kitchens that take ho-hum hamburger-flipping to all new heights

There's nothing like a barbecue to kick-start the summer season. Here, in celebration of Memorial Day weekend, we bring you five homes with really excellent kitchen/grilling/cocktail-making facilities. Move into one of these spaces and get cooking!

Core

Off the upper-floor living/dining room of this three-bedroom duplex penthouse condo at 60 White Street in Tribeca (yours for $9.275 million) lies this south-facing terrace with a bluestone counter bar and refrigerator, not to mention two outdoor showers in which to cool off after an evening spent sipping and supping.
