

December 16, 2012

Fein Farewell Attracts Joan Collins

As famed Feinstein's at the Loews Regency winds down for the hotel's planned renovation, real estate brokers and "Selling New York" stars Tom Postilio and Mickey Conlon hosted a bash for VIP clients. Michael Feinstein performed a private show of Gershwin tunes for guests including Tyne Daly and "Law & Order: SVU" star Tamara Tunie. The room buzzed when Joan Collins — who performed her own one-woman show at Feinstein's in 2010 and whose Midtown apartment was just featured on the HGTV series — arrived. Feinstein's recently told us they were weighing options to continue at a new location, but nothing has yet been announced.