

a as architecture

August 30, 2018

FIVE ONE FIVE BY SOO K. CHAN

Image © SCDA Architects

Five One Five is a new luxury condominium building in the heart of West Chelsea with architecture and interiors designed by world renowned Singaporean architect Soo K. Chan, principal of SCDA Architects.

Image © SCDA Architects

Located at 515 West 29th Street, Five One Five is situated at the gateway of Hudson Yards, a dynamic new neighborhood on the West Side that will bring new shops and restaurants, green spaces, arts and cultural opportunities and more to an already vibrant area. The building is also uniquely positioned at a place where the High Line takes a sharp turn, which will give every single residence a view of the iconic park.

Image © SCDA Architects

The architecture and interiors of Five One Five are designed by Soo K. Chan and his critically acclaimed firm SCDA. The building features 15 expansive homes ranging from two to three-bedroom residences, including a collection of five penthouses. The ultra-luxurious interiors combine Chan's signature minimal aesthetic with textured materials that blend warm woods with smooth stone palettes.

Image © SCDA Architects

Each residence features expansive, generous layouts and boasts light-filled interiors with luxury finishes, fixtures and materials chosen by Chan to evoke the sense of luxury and modern living with a touch of the building's surrounding urban roots. The intricate exterior design features curvy glass wings that give the façade a rippling appearance.

Image © SCDA Architects

Five One Five Residents will find everything they need for leisure, entertaining and fitness all at their doorstep. Amenities include direct keyed elevator access to each residence, an outdoor roof deck with kitchen, a fitness center, 24-hour attended lobby and ample storage.

Image © SCDA Architects

Five One Five is developed by Forum Absolute Capital Partners. CORE, one of New York City's most prominent residential real estate sales and marketing firms, is exclusively handling the sales and marketing for Five One Five. Source and images Courtesy of Optimist Consulting.